

*U.S. Naval Academy Human Research Protection Program
Nimitz Library G10 - Mail Stop 10M - Annapolis, Maryland 21402*

MEMORANDUM

29 Sep 2021

From: Assoc. Prof. Michael Kellermann, Chair, USNA Institutional Review Board (IRB)

To: Dr. Celeste Raver Luning, PhD, Class of '67 Leadership Research Fellow

Subj: EVALUATION OF RESEARCH/NON-RESEARCH
HRPP Determination # USNA.2021.0034-NR

1. After an evaluation of the proposal entitled, "Computer Science Capstone Project", the following determination has been made:

- ☒ The proposal is not considered research for the purposes of applying the Code of Federal Regulations (32 CFR 219) and you are not required to submit a protocol for review to the USNA IRB. This activity is limited to collecting and analyzing data that was previously collected and is de-identified. The Capstone team is comprised of; MIDN 1/C Haley Creech, MIDN 1/C Everett Stenberg, MIDN 1/C Krystal Kim, and MIDN 1/C Jenny Luo.
- ☐ Your proposal is not considered research involving human subjects for the purposes of applying the Code of Federal Regulations (32 CFR 219) and you are not required to submit a protocol for review to the USNA IRB.
- ☐ Your proposed research is considered research involving human subjects and you are required to submit a research protocol for review to the USNA IRB.
- ☐ Other: Provide additional comments here:

2. Please direct any questions to the HRPP Office at 410-293-2513 or hrppoffice@usna.edu

Michael R. Kellermann, Ph.D.
IRB Chair

29 SEP 2021